

Already have an account, but having issues?

Steps:

1. Are you seeing one of these dark screens?

2. You've missed a Privo sign up step, please find your verification email and click the "Verify My Account" button, or use this link.

3. Sign in with the password you set if needed.
4. Once on the settings page fill out any missing info and make sure these settings are toggled on, only the "Join & Collaborate" should be needed but toggle the others if you still have issues.

The screenshot shows the 'Casual Simulation' settings page. At the top, it says 'Powered by PRIVO'. Below that, it states 'Free servers for students.' and 'Community-provided web servers enable everyone, especially young people, to collaborate in authoring the future.'

It then informs the user: 'You have created a PRIVO iD (PRIVO icon) account in order to access ab1.bot. Review the information below to complete the registration process.'
